THE BEFORM SCHOOL AND THE It will be noticed by a petition copied elsewhere from the Western Tublet, that the demand promulgated by the Roman Catholic clergy some time since in the matter of the Chicago Reform School is still insisted upon, to wit: that the children of Catholic parent-age or Catholic descent in that institution shall receive the religious instruction of the Romish faith. The petition proceeds upon the undeniable assertion that the Catholic Church has a two-thirds interest in the inmates of the Reform School to request: Arst, that the said two-thirds shall receive religious instruction; and second, that they shall have the religious instruction of the Roman Catholic Church. The exact phrasecontrol of the control of the case paras-ology is "such religious instruction and train-"ing as they would have enjoyed had the "supervision and care of their params been "vouchsafed unto them." The petition is couched in respectful language and is entitled to a respectful answer, which we doubt not it will receive when it comes officially before the

ruction is given to any of the inmates of the Reform School. This constitutes one-hal no idea that the Council will entertain a proposition so widely at variance with the first principles of American liberty. The Constitution of the United States recognizes no form of religious worship or instruction. Why should the Common Council of Chicago or the Board of Guardians of the Reform the Scriptures, which constitutes the religion Bible according to its must obvious meaning titioners lies deeper than the question of toleration. They require that which is not rebuilding and well-being of Christ's kingdom required that they should die. The Arkansas smigrants had in some way abused the Saints with the saints and they were consequently given over to destruction. Far be it from me to hist that some fifth, one-tenth, one-twentieth, of the Mormons ever bore any part in these bloody deeds, or even know to this day that they were perpetrated. The great body of the Saints undoubtingly believe all the current imputations of Mormon homeide and outrage to be abominable calumnies. Many of the bighest diguitaries of the church may be included in this number. But there are men in the Church who know that they are not calumnies—who know that Gentiles and spostates have been killed for the Church's and for Christ's aske, and who firmly believe that they ownly to have been. I grieve to say it, but I hold these more consistent and logical Mormons than their innocent and unsuspicious trethren. For if I vere a statert-Day Saint, undoubtingly believing all opposers of the Mormon Church to be God's senenies, obnovious to His wrath and curse, and powerfully obstruct-Conception and the infallibility of the Popes shall be added to the scriptural readings afford-ed to a particular number of the inmates of the School, Substituting the Catholic version of the Bible for that most commonly in use in must be accompanied with Catholic instructo be accommodated in this respect under American institutions.

From all over the country the intelligence reaches various parties here with whom we have conversed, that the attendance from these different sections promises to be something entirely unprecedented in character and anothers. All over the Eastern and Middle States the Railroad Companies are contemplating the adoption of excursion rates to Chicago for fares one way and return free. These have not been definitely announced, but will be thrown open in time to secure to thousands who have never seen the Northwest, the opportunity to attend the U.S. Fair in this city, with a margin of time over, for an extension of the trip to other localities of interest to the tourist.

Indeed the railroad men do wisely to meet liberally and fully helf way the exigencies of the season, which may call out for the month of September such a rush of travel as has never been seen before. The location of the National Fair at Chicago indeed places it just where of all other cities in the Union, the great radiating lines of travel give direct connection with all other sections of the country. The great rootes

On the morning of his disappearance, Monday, 19th he laft home for the purpose, as his wife testified of purchasing some small articles for household use. He did not return, and was not again sees small his body was found in the lake.

In a pocket of his clothing was found a letter written in the early part of Juse, from a previous wife in England, which constained the information that his children were well, and that one of his sons had recently married. This letter he received, it is probable, subsequent to his marriage to a second wife, and it was presumed from all the circumstances which could be discovered, that in a fit of remoras he had sought relief in the take. The verdict, however was simply, found drowned, there being only presumptive swidence that the cast was one of self-destruction.

Who is Responsent F-Eds. Press and Tribous :—Competition is said to be the life of trade, and I have no doubt a good healthy competition is beneficial to all classes; but when we see a man acting mean towards a rival, we should frown him down as a sousance, even if he should underbid his competitors. A case in point—Walker russ his commissues in opposition to the cars on Randolph and Lake streets. He has reduced the price of fare if a dollar's worth of tickets are bought, and by this means has anesceded in carrying fully half the passegers. This is all right; but within the past week or so, however, the drivers of the busses have taken every possible opportunity of annoying the cars. One day this week I awa a driver drive his buss on the track directly in front of the ear going to the Wast Side, opposite Metropolitan Hall, and then stops without any occasion whetever, for as much as three minutes; then he drove leisurely down the track as far as the Hriggs House, where he stopped again to take in a passenger. He waited an unusual length of time before starting, and when he did, he kept on the track in front of the car as far as I could see. This is but one instance. I have heard a great many persons speaking of others of a similar character. Now, I want to know who is responsible for these actions? Has Mr. Walker given his drivers orders to "act the hop" with the cars whenever they can? Or are the drivers acting upon their own responsibility. If the former is the case, I think the Mayor should treat him as he would a backman—take his license from him. If the latter, why Mr. Walker's attention should be called to the subject, jao his drivers in the case, I think the Mayor should treat him as he would a backman—take his license from him. If the latter, why Mr. Walker's attention abould be called to the subject, jao his drivers in the case of the case of the case of the case is of meanness in future. tisadvantage of by far the greatest pressure spon them they have recently experienced. upon them they have recently experienced. The month of September indeed, is which the Fair week is balanced midway, will be busy throughout. The occasion is a rare one for our Chicago merchants to show the Northwest, which will be largely represented here, partly 30 business, and the other sections which will give a numerous attendance from curiosity, adequate mart for the great and growing section of which she is the metropolis.

show Chrisman to be elected, and took upon themselves to send another certificate to Frankfort.

Now it is perfectly clear to our minds that they acted in this matter without the slightest authority of law. The law required them to meet on the Thursday atter the election and perform the whole of their appointed duty of ascertaining the correctness of the samming up of the votes and to certify to Frankfort in accordance with the fact, and when that work was then and thus done, they were functi officoi, officially dead they no longer had an existence as a board of canvassers, any more than they will have next winter. They had no right to reassemble and make a second count on a day not recognized by the law, when they had made the first on the day legally prescribed, and the books had been sent to Frankfort. When the second count was made, the books had been out of the hands of the clerk, and open to the examination and interference of everybody.

A mistake of four votes was made against Anderson in the poll books of Boyle, but, when the fact was certified to Frankfort, every Demorat in the county, including Chrisman himself, Garrard, the State Treasurer, &c., said that it would be an outrage to receive any such additional returns.

The Republicans are not idle. They vie with Broderick in exposing the shame of the Buchanan Administration to the light. Col. Baker is stamping the State with great success. At Auburn, on the 19th of July, L. Sanford, Republican candidate for Governor, addressed a meeting. The speech of Mr. Sanford was isstanded to with much attention. All the speakers were straight-out Republicans. We shall roll up a big Republican majority for San Francisco, and increase our vote in the State at least ten thousand. Next year we hope to wheel, in the ranks to the Republican music of victory and principle.

A New Exery in the Frith-Our farmers are beginning to look forward with no little unceasiness to the ravages of an enemy hitherto a peaceable sojourner among us, namely the grazies are full of them, and already have they swept a number of turnip and buckwheat fields. They are also beginning to browse upon the corn, stripping the stalks of their leaves, etc. We hope this new affliction may not fall upon us, though there seems to be truth in the sentiment that "when afflictions come, they come not singly but in whole battalions." —Schwier Usitson, 2std.

We learn from a letter in the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gaestite dated Nebraska City, that the people of Nebraska have taken the imitiatory steps for the organization of a State Government. It is proposed to call a Convention in October, which will draft a Constitution to be submitted to the popular vote in November. If ratified, application for admission into the Union as a State will then be made at the same time that the claims of Kansas are presented. The writer adds that the land sales had been in progress in Nebraska City for several days. Three hundred thousand acres had been offered, but not more than two thousand found purchasers. It is usual, or at any rate, convenient for the affirmative side in a debate to state distinctly what they propose to prove. Without this any debate must be rambing and inconclusive. Men will frequently dispute a long time only to find out at last that they substantially agree. They may agree also in certain premises, and yet disagree as to the inferences to be drawn therefrom

Men differ as to the foundation of the obligation to observe its and those who agree as to that, differ as to the particulars and degree of that observance, and also as to the means to be used to promote it, which latter point seems to me of great importance. Some who entertain very strong opinions of the perpetuity of the Sabbath as a divinely appointed institution, enjoined by positive law, are yet very doubtful as to calling in the aid of the eiril power to its support. Perhaps I should have said that the only practical question yet put in this matter, is that relating to the cars on the horse railroads. Dr. McC. had gone to balks, and being alone, and ignorant of the swiftness of the current, was speedily carried out beyond his power to return. No tidings of him were obtained after he left the hotels at Tonswands, eight miles above the Falls—whither he had gone for his health, on the 6th—until his clothing was found on the shore, on the 10th, and identified by his name upon a handkerchief. His body was recovered below the Falls on the 29d, and is now on the way to Mayaville for interment. The most intense anxiety for his fate hos existed there for two weeks past, without any definite intelligence, until the 21st. In the mean time, two special messengers had been sent out in search of tidings from him.

Dr. McClang was the son of Judge William McClung, one of the ablest Kentucky Jurists of the day, and the elder brother of the late Colonial Alexander R. McClung, so celebrated in Massissippi politics and othralry, and in the Maxican War. Dr. McCl. was for many years a lawyer, at the head of the Bar in Morthera Kenzicky, and the author of several small works of fletion, biography and history. In 1850, he gave up the law, and became one of the most powerful, useful, and highly esteemed ministers of his church. He refused a most flattering call from the Central Presbyterian Church, in this city, and preached with remarkable scoptance in Indianapolis, and in Mayaville. preying upor del and young, and seattering widely its shafts of destruction. But all who have ever traveled through the South and Wes, or indeed through any portion of the intentor of the country, must have noticed that there is a disease for more prevalent among Americans, than crosamption. Day after day, they are alternately shaking, as with a nervous 8t, or randered cellvious with fewer. Most of them find an early graws. No one who has ever seen or experienced this disease, can full to percuive that we allude to what is called fewer and Ague. The discovere of a

The Pope has sent a large bundle of curses to Rugland after a workman, escaped from his alum manufactory, and who revealed some of the secrets of the art. The form of excommunication curses the poor mechanic "in his basket and in his store, not only in eating, drinking, and being hungry and thirsty, but in sleeping, in walking, working, standing, resting; not only in the power of his body, but in all his members, in the bair of his head, temples, forehead, ears, systrows, cheeks, jawhones, nestrils, foreteeth, and grinders; in ips, throat, shoulders, wrists, arms, hands, veins, groins, thighs—hips, knees, legs, joints, and units, living and dying." The Pope attaches a good deal of importance to alum, from his pains to curse this poor fellow from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot; and leat his own influence is not estough, be calls into his aid St. Miches), St. John, St. Peter, St. Paul, St. Andrew, and a whole company of martyrs and confessors, "from the beginning of the world to everlasting ages." The stringency of this bull aavors of alum works.

This is a serious disappointment, and we hope it is not general. One gentleman, whose judgment in such matter is good, thinks the own crop will not reach the mark anticipated—that it and the potato crop in this State are to fall far below the usual yield.

Our neighbors's informant may be correct with regard to some sections of the State, so far as regards wheat; but the corn crop is conceded by most people to be very large, and, LOSSES AND EXPENSES.
